

THE PANTILES
The Jewel in the Town

PRESS RELEASE

REF: 238

Entertain your little horrors this Halloween at The Pantiles

To mark Halloween The Pantiles in Tunbridge Wells is running a free day of fun games, spooky craft workshops, and a fancy dress procession for the children on Friday 31st October 2008 in the Corn Exchange.

There will be two craft workshop sessions where the children can make all sorts of eerie creations, from scary masks and witches hats, to spell books and potions.

The professional 'Make & Do' team will be on hand to help the children in their creative endeavours but all children do need to be accompanied by a parent or guardian at all times.

With two creative workshops being run throughout the day there will be ample opportunity for the little ones to get involved. The first session runs from 11.30am - 1.30pm and the second runs from 2.30pm - 4.30pm.

In addition to the workshops the children can take part in fun and games including a creepy lucky dip that will run from 12 to 4pm. Then there will be a fancy dress procession through The Pantiles so the children can show off their fabulously scary costumes. The procession will depart from the Corn Exchange at 4.30 pm and will lead once round The Pantiles (in the event of bad weather the procession will take place in the Corn Exchange).

The Halloween day will conclude in the Corn Exchange with a fancy dress competition at 4.45pm. Two prizes will be awarded for each age group of 4- 8 years and 9-12 years old.

Let the children get creative and celebrate Halloween in safe surroundings; get them dressed up in spooky costumes and bring them down to The Pantiles for a fun filled day they won't forget.

-ENDS-

For more information contact the PR team at Adams Creative:

David Hanson or Amanda Goodchild on 01622 687 729 or email david@adamscreative.co.uk or amanda@adamscreative.co.uk