

THE PANTILES
The Jewel in the Town

PRESS RELEASE

REF:

8th December 2008

Anna Williamson and Aladdin stars shine at The Pantiles

Saturday 6th December saw The Pantiles come alive with colour and festive theatre as the stars of the Aladdin pantomime at the Assembly Hall Theatre came down to entertain visitors both young and old. Children were also treated to captivating stories in the Corn Exchange told by Anna Williamson who plays Aladdin and hosts ITV's Toonattik.

Visitors to The Pantiles soaked up the Christmas cheer as they were serenaded with seasonal songs sung by the fabulous Festive Blend choral group whilst perusing the finest Christmas fare in the 'Sparkling Market'.

There's a host of entertainment and events every weekend in the run up to Christmas, for more details check www.thepantilesonline.co.uk

-ENDS-

For more information contact the PR team at Adams Creative:

David Hanson or Amanda Goodchild on 01622 687 729 or email david@adamscreative.co.uk or amanda@adamscreative.co.uk